Course Name: Effective Communication for Leaders TRN-INPECL-875

Course Type: Webinar In-Person Training E-Learning

Length of Course/Session: 3.5 hours

Date of Course/Session:

Course Description:

Effective Communication for Leaders is an activity-based course that challenges leaders to examine their individual communication preferences during decision making, delegation, and when they are engaging staff. Participants complete DISC Management Assessment prior to the course and examine their preferences through activities. Leaders work in groups of five to six to complete communication and decision-making challenges that earn them points as they make their way to Mount Everest base camp and then on to the Summit. Strategies for improving communication, decision making, delegation, and engagement are explored.
